

FAIR WORK – MOVING BEYOND THE RHETORIC

Since we last convened, the pendulum has now completed its swing from WorkChoices to Fair Work.

At this Conference, the focus will be on the now fully implemented industrial relations system to consider whether or not Fair Work is delivering what its name promises for all stakeholders .

You will hear from politicians, unions, employer groups, academics and lawyers amongst others. Some interesting, some possibly provocative but all open and frank.

At Kiama you will find a tranquil rural town and the Sebel Harbourside, an excellent resort venue.

Speakers will be heard all day Friday, Saturday morning and early afternoon. Michael Easton of counsel will present “The Year in Review” on Friday night and a special guest will speak on Saturday night, followed by live entertainment.

Saturday afternoon is free time with plenty of activities to choose from such as a short stroll to the famous 'blow-hole', historic terrace shops, restaurants, and clubs. This wonderful recreational region also provides, 3 lovely golf courses, the spectacular Carrington Falls, the Minnamurra Rainforest, Seven Mile, Bombo, Kendall and East's Beaches all in close proximity.
